REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

THE RANDOLPH-MACON SYSTEM.

The several institutions of learning connected with our Conference have made their usual reports to the Board. The statistical part of their reports will be found in answer to the Question 26 of the Conference Minutes. However, we call attention to the following points of special interest:

The College of Ashland reports a small increase in amount of its endowment and that 207 students have matriculated. The Woman's College has increased its endowment by almost $10,000. We are impressed with the large number of students enrolled in Bible classes and as members of the Y. W. C. A. The Academy of Bedford is continuing its splendid work. It is interesting to note that 125 of the 236 students are from outside of the State.

The condition of the Academy at Front Royal is a cause for congratulation. The sum of $25,632.55 on the debt fund has been paid. The number of students enrolled this scholastic year is 196. The Institute at Danville has a student body numbering 456, the largest enrollment in the history of the school. In addition, 165 applicants were turned away.

We urge upon our people their unstinted loyalty to our institutions of learning.

THE EMORY UNIVERSITY.

The report which comes to us from Emory University is encouraging and full of hope for the future. Although this great school has been established only six years, it now holds property and endowment amounting to about four million dollars ($4,000,000), and there are enrolled in the various departments of the school about one thousand students. It is true that this is but a beginning, and should be recognized throughout the Church as but a beginning, of a well equipped University. It is recognized, however, that the University is making its appeal to the Church at large, and the response already received indicates that it is the purpose of our Church to own and to control a University of the highest grade.

BLACKSTONE JUNIOR COLLEGE.

We are gratified to know that the Blackstone Junior College of our Church, at Blackstone, Virginia, has a substantial patronage from the bounds of the Baltimore Conference. We are grateful for the consideration shown the members of the Conference and commend it to the continued favor of our people.

DEPARTMENT OF MINISTERIAL SUPPLY AND TRAINING.

By a wise provision of the General Conference, all the undergraduates of the Conference course are required to take the correspondence course. This school, under the direction of Dr. R. H. Bennett, has been doing a splendid work, and the results of this work cannot fail to produce large effects upon the quality of our future ministry. The ministry of the Gospel of Jesus Christ has never been put to a severer test than at the present time. It is an age in which there are no closed questions. Every spiritual leader is compelled to give a reason for the faith that is in him. The mere utterance of platitudes no longer affects the public mind or satisfies the soul of man. The demand, therefore, is not only for an increased number of preachers, but also for a better equipped and more efficient ministry. Our Correspondence School is endeavoring to meet this reasonable demand.

THE EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN.

It is well known throughout the Church that a campaign for raising funds for educational purposes will be begun in the near future. This is in accordance with the action of the General Conference setting apart the last two years of the quadrennium for this purpose. It is to be hoped that this worthy cause, without which the Church cannot succeed in the largest measure, will appeal to every loyal Methodist, and that the result will show a measure of success equal to that already attained in the first two years of the Centenary program. We recommend:

- (1) That the Board of Education be appointed an ad interim committee to arrange for this campaign.
- (2) That the Conference accept our quota of the approved askings for our educational institutions.
- (3) That the Conference accept our proportional part of an additional asking of $500,000.00 for Randolph-Macon Woman's College.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

THE GENERAL BOARD.

The report of the Secretary, Rev. H.A. Boaz, D. D., was before your Board, and is of interest to every member of the Conference. You will be glad to know that Church Extension has continued with uninterrupted progress. The total income from all sources during the year closing March 31, 1919, was $864,326.85, while that of the preceding year was $720,030.00.

The future is most promising. The Centenary Offering ought to increase the funds of the Board $2,000,000. One-half of this will be added to the Loan Fund, which is now $1,195,627.64. The other half will be used in buildings in this and foreign lands.

THE CONFERENCE BOARD.

The assessment from the General Board of Church Extension this year was $10,724.00, and the assessment ordered by this Conference for The Representative Church $2,000.00; total, $12,724.00; paid on assessment, $11,109.00, a net gain of $628.00, due to the new method of prorating all funds. After appropriating $1,500.00 for the Representative Church and transmitting 50 per cent., $4,679.70, to the General Board, we had $4,929.00 to be used in aiding churches and parsonages within our own bound, which is $299.00 more than we had one year ago.

Eight churches asked for aid, amounting to $5,100.00, and three parsonages, $1,050.00.

OUR LOAN FUND now amounts to $3,029.00. We have made loans to three churches and are prepared to aid others.

WE RECOMMEND:

First—That the assessment for Church Extension for next year be the same as last year, $10,724.00, and $2,000.00 for the Representative Church. Total, $12,724.00.

Second—That all of the preachers present the matter of the Conference Loan Fund to their congregations and in the homes of the people as they have opportunity. By increasing this fund we can greatly relieve the constant pressure on the General Loan Fund.

Third—That representatives from the Conference Board be sent to the District Conferences that the work may be properly kept before all of our people.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

To the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South—

The Sunday School Board submits the following report:

Complete statistics of Sunday Schools for the Conference year now closing have not yet been compiled. So far as they are available, they indicate that the schools of our Conference have not been so seriously affected by the falling off in enrollment during the war period as have Sunday Schools throughout the country in our own Church and others, but have more nearly kept step with the healthy progress that they have been making for a number of years past. It is known that a number of the large schools have made substantial gains, and we believe that the complete figures will show a satisfactory increase over last year.

LITERATURE.

We again express our gratification and pleasure at the high standard of excellence maintained by our Sunday School literature, and urge that all our schools use the Sunday School publications and lesson-helpers of our own Church. It is known that some do not, but no considerations of economy or of a supposed superiority where no superiority exists ought to govern in so vital a matter.

FIELD SECRETARY.

The best expression of the Board's activities and of its interest in the schools of the Conference has been found during the year in the work of our Field Secretary, Rev. W. H. Best, which has fully established the wisdom of our action in employing him in that position one year ago. We incorporate his report to the Board, in full, as follows:

ANNUAL REPORT OF WM. H. BEST, FIELD SECRETARY.

"Twelve short months ago your Field Secretary began his work. The field was an untried one to him. There was no outlined policy even suggested by the Board. Only a great big opportunity before him. Thousands of unaffiliated folk were scattered over the range of the Baltimore Conference who ought to be enrolled as members of the Sunday School forces. Thousands of babies to be enrolled on the Cradle Rolls. Thousands of invalids, shut-ins, and busy little mothers to be enrolled in the Home Department. A host of officers and teachers who needed to catch the vision of the possibility of a trained leadership for the Sunday School world. Many pastors who needed to learn the value of childhood in its relation to the Kingdom of God. These and kindred thoughts and visions gave zest to the work and encouragement when the load was heavy and the way long and dreary.

"Policy.

"There have been two distinct features before us during the entire year: First, the intensive work that can be done by carrying the latest information and methods into the local school. The isolated rural school always having the preference when a choice of places had to be made. Secondly, the training of a force of leaders in the centers of influence who shall carry modern methods of teaching and organization into the surrounding territory.

"We were successful in holding a Standard Training School in Roanoke, with splendid results. Already plans are being made for holding a Conference-Wide Training School at Front Royal in June, and a Standard Training School at Roanoke and Washington during the coming year. We hope to include several other Training Schools in our plans for next year.

"Sunday School Centenary.

"The Centenary Sunday School Special was vigorously presented to our schools, with the result that one hundred and fifty local schools assumed the Centenary Pledge of five cents per capita per member. The report from Nashville to March 1st, 1920, showed that $5,797 had been paid on this fund.

"Summary of Work for Year.

"I have traveled 15,965 miles; made 254 addresses; held 83 institutes and conferences; attended 4 District Conferences; attended 4 County Conventions; sent out 5,000 pieces of mail; distributed more than 10,000 pieces of literature; distributed 125 Standards of Efficiency; held one Standard Training School; attended the Junaluska School of Methods and the Field Workers' Council, and was away from home 219 days.

"Respectfully submitted,

"W. H. BEST, Field Secretary."

The Board has cordially approved the plans of the Field Secretary for the coming year, as outlined in his report, and has re-elected Brother Best to the position.

Sunday School Anniversary.

Although Thursday night of the Conference week had been set aside for the observance of our Sunday School Anniversary, the Board cordially yielded to the Asbury Memorial Association which had planned a meeting for that night. Believing, however, that no Conference ought to pass without an adequate presentation of the Sunday School interest, we request that Thursday night, at next Conference, be set aside as Sunday School night.

ORGANIZATION.

We again urge that organization recommended by our General Sunday School Board be effected in every District, at an early date. The assistance of the Executive Committee and the Field Secretary in perfecting such organization will be available upon request.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR LEADERS.

Our workers, generally, should avail themselves of the great opportunity afforded by the Training School at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY.

Despite forebodings to the contrary and the many heavy drafts upon the resources of our people during the year, the returns from Sunday School Day show a gratifying increase, with complete returns not yet received. Every school should observe this service and take an offering, to the end that our work for promoting Sunday School interests may be adequately supported. The offering when taken should be sent to the Board's Treasurer, O. C. Michael, Aberdeen, Maryland. Don't wait until Conference to settle. Free programmes may be ordered of Smith & Lamar, at Nashville, Tenn., or Richmond, Va., by all schools that will take and forward such offerings.

Respectfully submitted,

M. L. WALTON, President.

W. W. MILLAN, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

Your Epworth League Board would submit the following report after a year of successful effort:

The year just closing has witnessed a decided improvement in the Epworth League work in the Conference. We take rank along with the best in our connection. New charters have been granted and old ones revived and a new spirit has laid hold on our Leaguers. A closer co-operation between the Central Office, the Conference Board and the Conference Epworth League has been made possible under the new constitution of the Epworth League. The Epworth Era is improving in make-up, influence and patronage; and the Epworth Quarterly is filling a long-felt want in our Junior and Intermediate Leagues.

1. We are glad to report 151 senior chapters and 90 junior chapters, with 9,941 members.

2. Our Leagues of the Conference have assumed $4,200 on the African Centenary Special which clearly indicates that our young people are alive to the world-wide interests of the Kingdom.

3. At our League Conference held at Lexington last July, we had the great joy of having 18 volunteers for life service in the foreign and home fields, some of whom are now at school preparing for their life work; which number has been increased to 36 at this date.

4. Our League Assembly this year will be held at Randolph-Macon Academy, Front Royal, Va., June 9-13. We are arranging a great program and confidently expect a great grace to be on us as we meet to prepare our young manhood and womanhood for greater service. We ask that our pastors co-operate with us in securing the attendance of the best young people of our charges at this assembly. We would call attention to the General League Assembly at Lake Junaluska, July 22 to August 1, and urge our Leaguers to attend as far as possible that the influence and inspiration be more widespread.

5. Anniversary Day has not been observed as it should.

We would respectfully recommend:

1. That Saturday night of our next annual Conference be set aside as the date of our League Board Anniversary, subject to the approval of the Conference Program Committee.

2. That our preachers give attention to the Anniversary Day observance in their Leagues, and where there are no Leagues that a young people's service be held and an offering taken in accordance with Paragraph 404 of the Discipline.

3. That increased effort be made to promote interest in mission study and stewardship.

4. That district meetings be held in each of our districts by the District Secretaries in co-operation with the members of the Conference League Board and the presiding elders; that effort be made to bring contiguous Leagues into institutes and league extension work.

Appropriation: We have appropriated the sum of $750 to the Conference League Extension for district league extension work.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

We have received during the year the sum of $123.11 and have expended for the expenses incurred by the President and Secretary-Treasurer in work of the Board $27.59, leaving a balance of $95.52 in hand.

BIBLE BOARD REPORT.

The Bible Board of the Baltimore Conference desires to submit the following report:

We deeply deplore the fact that there is a large decrease in the funds for this most worthy cause this year. This is due primarily to the mode of raising these collections, which was brought about by the action of the General Conference.

The Discipline requires that an assessment be levied on the Conference for the American Bible Society by the Commission on Finance. This assessment is less than the amount raised by the voluntary contributions of previous years.

In spite of the fact that a call was made for a special from each charge for the American Bible Society, we are sorry to say that the contribution, including the assessment, is nearly one thousand dollars short of last year.

We further recommend that our preachers stress the importance of the Morning Watch and daily Bible reading.

In order that busy ministers, Sunday School superintendents and teachers who will want to take part in the observance of this day may be fully equipped with the latest facts and information, the American Bible Society will have ready at an early date appropriate literature on the subject. Requests for this free literature may be sent to Mr. L. W. Barnard, American Bible Society, Bible House, Astor Place, New York City, and the literature will be mailed well in advance of November 28, 1920.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The year has been one of great progress in the work of missions throughout the whole Church, for which we are profoundly grateful to God. The Centenary has brought not only millions of dollars into the treasury, but also great spiritual blessings to our people.

CENTENARY.

The Conference Board of Missions has received the ten per cent. refund from the Centenary which amounts this year to $19,424.23. It is the policy of the Board in administering this fund to adhere strictly to the plan as set forth in the survey upon which all the askings of the Centenary were based. Along four lines this money will be disbursed—for the extension of our missionary operations, for the efficiency of our mission workers, for the increase of salaries through propaganda, and for the supplement of salaries where necessary.

NOMINATIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS.

We nominate as the Committee on Evangelism: Revs. W. A. Talbert, G. H. Smith, H. I. Stephens, A. Knox, C. D. Harris, S. K. Cockrell, H. H. Sherman.

We nominate Judge E. D. Newman as Conference Lay Leader.

We recommend to the Bishop Rev. H. H. Sherman for appointment as Conference Missionary Secretary to give his full time to the office in connection with the Centenary movement.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE—REPORT NO. 1.

Concerning the BALTIMORE SOUTHERN METHODIST.

Your Board of Christian Literature respectfully submits its Report No. 1.

The wisdom of the Conference last year in providing a better financial support for the Baltimore Southern Methodist is evidenced from the fact that not only was the paper enabled to pass through one of the most critical years in the history of American journalism without increasing its subscription price, but broke all records in its growth in circulation. It has now over ten thousand subscribers and leads all the Conference papers in the connection in proportionate circulation.

All the Conferences are making large provisions for the support of their papers and their increase in circulation, because they have learned by practical tests that the value of these papers to the Church cannot be easily overestimated, particularly at a time when the progress of the Kingdom is largely conditioned upon our being regularly supplied with the proper sort of information concerning the Church and its movements. These papers pay their own way because of the increased revenues they bring the Church, not to speak of the mighty fruits that cannot be computed in commercial terms. The slogan throughout Southern Methodism is "The Conference Paper in Every Home." Our paper which has led the others for several years should be the first to reach this goal. Hinton, Aberdeen, Elk Garden, Pasadena and Star Tannery have already reached it in their local congregations.

In view of the foregoing, we make the following recommendations:

First—That we request the Conference Commission on Finance to fix as the assessment the same amount as last year, viz, $4,500.00.

Second—That we suggest October as the month for the annual campaign for securing at least one thousand subscribers for the Conference paper, and that the allotment plan and methods of last year, which were so successful, be adopted. The editor and business manager and the Presiding Elders are authorized to carry these provisions into effect.

Third—That nothing in this report shall be construed as authorizing the Publishing Company to involve this Conference in any debt whatsoever.

J. W. DUFFEY, President.

NEVELL S. GREENWAY, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE—REPORT NO. 2.

Your Committee commend to the Conference the various publications of our Publishing House. We regret that our connection organ, The Christian Advocate, should have to be published at a loss to the publishers. We think they are fully warranted in increasing the subscription price of the same. The Methodist Review is worthy of our cordial support and should be read by an increasing number of our preachers and laymen.

We recommend to the Conference the periodicals of the various boards of the Church: The Epworth Era, the Missionary Voice and the Sunday School literature.

We believe the Board of Missions has rendered an invaluable service to the Church in the distribution of so many thousands of tracts and leaflets.

We recommend the appointment of C. D. Harris as Editor and Business Manager.

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Since God has ordained for man's good, the Sabbath as a holy day and the recognition of this fact makes the Christian Sabbath one among the strongest defenses that God has given men against the invasion of evil, we believe this day to be one of the fundamental principles of our national civilization and security; and we recognize all attempts to commercialize the Sabbath as an endeavor to dig up the foundations of our Christianity.

We believe the Christian Sabbath to be of vital importance to the highest welfare of our people and Government; and that any attempt to make this a day of convenience or pleasure is to invite the most serious danger. And since the true mission of the Church is to observe the laws of God, we therefore recommend:

1. That we set our positive seal of disapproval upon any attempt to violate the law and spirit of the Sabbath.
2. That we call upon our ministry and the members of our Church to use every effort to discourage and defeat all endeavors to use the Christian Sabbath for other purposes than those declared in God's word.
3. That the Church is requested to co-operate with every wise movement to preserve the sanctity of the Sabbath.
4. That we request our pastors and people to give their hearty support to the efforts of the Lord's Day Alliance to protect the true spirit of the Christian Sabbath, and to secure the enforcement of laws forbidding its violation.
5. That we believe the selling and reading of Sunday newspapers and other unwarranted Sabbath diversions lead to spiritual indifference and are to a serious extent hurtful to the Christian life. We therefore condemn it.

REPORT NO. 1 OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE.

Every great forward movement in the history of public righteousness entails larger responsibility.

Many of us have had a sort of feeling that when prohibition was embodied in the Constitution of the United States that would automatically end the great contest.

But just when we thought we could lay aside our armor and take our ease, rejoicing in a great victory, we find we have to buckle on again and renew the conflict. Our enemies have by no means given up the fight. There is too much easy money to be made and too much diligently cultivated appetite to be gratified for them to give up.

They have shifted the point of attack from front to flank and hope to gain by guile what they lost by impudent assertion.

They are moving heaven and earth to have beer and wines of comparatively small alcoholic content sold as non-intoxicating.

All over the land vast efforts are being made to create a sentiment that will compel a modification of the enforcement law and induce the admission into the platform of the great political parties a plank demanding beers and wines with a considerable percentage of alcohol.

As always the bulwark of the movement against intoxicants is the evangelical Christian Churches of the land, led by an aggressive and eminent evangelical ministry. We dare not abate our vigilance during the present crisis nor until our enemies learn thoroughly the futility of their efforts to re-establish the saloon.

We recognize the faithful service of Hon. Daniel C. Roper, former United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in his efforts to organize the department for law enforcement. And we urge upon his successor the necessity for equal diligence in every effort to compel obedience to law by this business whose malign habit it has always been to set at naught every legal effort for its regulation and suppression.

We urge upon our people not only great fidelity to the principles of temperance and prohibition, but active co-operation with such organizations as the Anti-Saloon League in its fight for the final overthrow of this enemy.

Along with this it is necessary that we give very serious consideration to the suppression of organized social vice. As ministers of the Gospel and leaders among our people we must approach this serious problem with careful study and be able as far as possible to reach a workable basis for the successful suppression of it.

While the full regulation of the social habits of our people is exceedingly difficult we must still maintain our ancient protest against excessive and often most damaging indulgence in those worldly amusements that so easily run into actual immorality.

These are days of vast racial unrest not only among the peoples of Europe, but among the many and diverse peoples that dwell together here in our land. Throughout the Northern and Western sections of our common country are many conflicting races and interests.

Compared with these ever increasing racial perplexities of our neighbors, our own racial difficulties are easy of management and solution.

It is not so easy, however, that we can afford to neglect or ignore them. Not only the difficulties natural to the situation—two races, entirely distinct, living side by side—but the imported elements that are likely to complicate the indigenous difficulties, ought to give us concern. We may be sure that the sentiments that are setting the peoples of the whole world by the ears and are fast gaining ground in certain sections of the North and West will not leave our neighboring colored population free or undisturbed.

If we are to forestall the active propaganda of racial animosity among our colored people, resulting in race riots and other serious disturbances, we must draw near together in some positive and intelligent effort to understand each others viewpoint and perplexities.

The wise leaders of the colored race have their difficulties with their people as we have in our work. The spirit of radicalism is getting among our Southern colored people and many of them are breaking away from their more conservative leaders.

As in every place and condition, the religion of Our Lord is the first and last line of defense against these hurtful influences. And our only hope of permanent readjustment on a solid basis is here in the house of God.

This problem of the South, is distinctly, or pre-eminently the problem of the Southern Methodist Church. More than any other, by reason of numbers, wealth, position and influence we must answer to God and humanity for a wise, sympathetic and brotherly treatment of this issue.

The Southern Methodist preacher must strive to get into helpful touch with the leaders of our colored people. We must take some stand for a fairer and friendlier treatment of this comparatively dependent race. While we maintain the principle of race separation for mutual benefit we, the stronger, must see that our colored brothers have every right and opportunity for development that we claim for ourselves and our children.

TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE—REPORT NO. 2.

Your Board makes the following report on the matter referred to it:
To the President, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the United States:

WHEREAS, The unity, justice, tranquillity, defense, welfare and liberty of nations, the objects specified in the preamble of the Constitution of the United States, are to be secured by recognizing the authority and obeying the laws of Jesus Christ, and

WHEREAS, The enthronement of Jesus Christ as Saviour and King in the life of the people of the United States should be followed, as a consequence by the acknowledgment of His authority, in "the supreme law of the land," therefore,

We respectfully present and urge our petition that the preamble of the National Constitution be amended to read in substance as follows:

We, the people of the United States, devoutly recognizing the authority and law of Jesus Christ, the Saviour and King of nations, and desiring to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessing of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Resolved, That both as a matter of sound principle, and effective Christian propaganda, we cordially approve the purpose of the above petition to Congress, and give it the endorsement of this Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

REPORT OF VISITORS TO THE MARYLAND GENERAL HOSPITAL.

Your committee appointed to visit the Maryland General Hospital of Baltimore desires to offer the following report:

The hospital, notwithstanding the increased cost of commodities, is in an excellent condition. During the year Rev. Geo. Clark Peck, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was elected financial secretary of the hospital, and under his wise and enthusiastic management further progress is being made.

We recommend that our Conference sympathetically co-operate with the Methodist Hospital Association in its work in every way possible, but without in any way incurring any financial obligations thereby, or becoming responsible for its management in any sense that would bind our Annual Conference legally, financially or morally.

We request the preachers of the Conference to commend the hospital to our people and that each pastoral charge at the discretion of the pastor observe one Sabbath in the year to be known as "Hospital Sunday" and the sacramental collection of that day be given to the Hospital Association.

REPORT ON CONFERENCE HOME.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 7, 1920.

As I was authorized by our last Annual Conference held in Staunton, Va., March, 1919, to solicit and receive contributions for the purpose of establishing a home industrial school for orphan or semi-orphan children, a home for the aged or infirm members or adherents of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, within the bounds of the Baltimore Conference.

I beg leave to submit the following report: After the Centenary drive I began presenting the needs of a home for the young and old or needy and continued actively engaged in the work until nearly Christmas, when many of the pastors thought it would require the rest of the year in order for them to complete the work already undertaken by their charges.

In the brief time given me, there are reasons for gratification with the results. I preached and presented the needs and benefits of such an institution at the following places. And in order that there might be something in hand to meet the current expenses another year, by the consent of the pastor gave the people an opportunity of making an offering.

MEMOIRS

REV. GEORGE THOMAS TYLER.

One of the distinct features of our Methodism is the custom of recording upon our Minutes from the very beginning of our history a short memoir of our departed brethren. This custom breathes a holy sense of comradeship, and is a token of our confidence of victory over the passing incident of death. When we record the name of George Thomas Tyler on the honor roll of those who have been found faithful unto the end, we do so with a profound feeling of personal loss, but also with the challenging paean of our Christian faith: "Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

This year, when his name was called, and the answer came, "Died in the Lord," there stood out before our minds in holy memory the familiar figure of this man of God. Erect in his physical stature, kindly in his countenance, pleasing in personality, a gentleman of the old school, and a Christian minister in every word and act.

As we think of his relation to the Baltimore Conference, there is wealth of material to rewrite its history for more than half a century, for he was identified with every phase of our ministry and took an active part in all that pertained to the welfare of the Conference. From 1873 to 1909 he was our statistical secretary, and in this office, he not only took a lively pride in the accuracy of our record, but he carried the facts and figures in his heart. He loved the Church of God, but the investment of his life in the Master's cause was in and through the Baltimore Conference.

His loyalty was a passion and his service was a life surrender. His Church was never afraid to send him anywhere as its representative, and his Lord never failed to accredit him as an ambassador of the Kingdom. Today we record the simple facts of his journey with us.

He was born at Onancock, Accomac County, Virginia, December 16, 1843. His father was John Dennis Tyler, and his mother Mary Rebecca Ames Tyler. He secured his education in the public schools of his native county, and at the age of 15 entered Dickinson College. While pursuing his graduate course the war broke out and he returned to his home and joined the Home Guard, but was never called to active service. April 27th, 1865, he was united in marriage to Miss Amanda Taylor, and of this union was born one daughter, Georgie Amanda, now Mrs. C. C. Buckner. His wife died July, 1868. He moved to Baltimore City and became connected with the National Bank of Commerce of that city. From early childhood Brother Tyler had been a Christian, having been converted 15th of August, 1854, at a campmeeting, this being in his eleventh year. He identified himself with Central Church in Baltimore, and soon felt the pressure of the Divine Hand, thrusting him out into the ministry. He was licensed to preach by the Central Quarterly Conference and began to exercise his ministry as a supply on Laurel Circuit as a junior to the Rev. Robert Smith. He joined the Conference in the spring of 1869, and secured as his first appointment the place of junior preacher on Laurel Circuit. In the spring of 1870 he was ordained deacon by Bishop McTyeire, and the following spring, 1871, he was ordained elder by Bishop George F. Pierce. In 1870 he served Severn Circuit, 1871-1872 Kent Circuit, and for the next four years, 1873-1877, was the pastor of our Church in Frederick City, Maryland. During this pastorate on the 27th of April, 1874, he married Mrs. Mary Fackler Sinn, of Frederick City, Maryland. His next appointment was to Talbot Circuit, 1877-99, and in 1879-82 he was at Rockville, Maryland. His succeeding appointments follow. Stephens City, 1883-86; Winchester, 1886-88; Arlington, 1888-90; Moorefield District, 1890-94; Loudon, 1894-98; Marshall, 1898; Falls Church, 1899-1901; Fredericksburg, 1901-1903; Lewisburg District, 1903-7; Winchester District, 1907-11; Hamilton, 1911-15; Fairfax, 1915-19. At the Conference of March, 1919, he was granted a superannuated relation, this filling out fifty years of uninterrupted service. What a glorious way to live half a century!

Brother Tyler's ministry may be characterized not so much as a mountain range of towering peaks with low intervening valleys, but as a high level stretching through this long tract of years. He was always, and everywhere, a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

He wore the clerical garb, and never missed an opportunity to lead a conversation into the realms of religion. His pastoral work was ever before him. In all his approaches to men his object was to impart some spiritual gift. This was his life work, in season and out of season, he never seemed to forget that he had been sent of God to watch over souls. He never laid aside his one supreme purpose to reach and save the lost. At the same time, his evangelistic zeal did not create in him a morbid spirit. His companionship was full of good cheer. He seemed to be able to enter into the very life of his people. With the sad and afflicted he had a ministry of comfort and hope. With the young, he could impart an added zest to their buoyancy of spirit, with the erring he was patient and tender.

In theology, Brother Tyler knew well the whole realm of closed questions. Wide and careful reading had made him acquainted with the speculative thought of the day, but he was satisfied with the full-orbed teaching of Wesleyan Theology, and he accepted those great doctrines which he had tested in his own personal experience. He gave the people something to believe, and challenged their faith with the scriptural evidence of a spiritual apprehension and experience of its power to save. He seldom rose to great heights of oratory. His grasp of truth and his appreciation of its awful import in human life would not lend itself to mere rhetorical display, or to those lighter veins of utterance that please the thoughtless hearer. He preached to comfort and strengthen the believer, and to arouse and quicken the sinner.

He lived what he preached. You never knew him until you were admitted into the sacred circle of his home life. Here his Christian qualities shone with their highest splendor. His was a Christian home. With the support and help of his devoted wife, that home has given to the church five preachers. In his home was an atmosphere where souls grew. The family altar, the open Bible, the place of secret prayer, were the outstanding features of his home life. Another characteristic fact of his home life was his wise and conscientious attention to the value of money. He knew and practised the doctrines of the stewardship of money. Almost the last record of his diary which he kept for many years was dated June 10, 1919, and is as follows: "Since my fifteenth year I have kept an accurate account of all receipts and expenditures. Can no longer do so, save to see that my tithe is paid." On June 16th, he records the receipt of a payment which he did not expect to receive, and the entry that a tithe of it was given to the Centenary. So he lived, and taught, and served, the product of a religion that can stand the test of any age, of any condition.

He died July 6th, 1919, and was carried to his grave by his seven sons who held him in reverent devotion.

His surviving children are Mrs. C. C. Buckner, Rev. Frank Ames, Dr. George Thomas, Rev. Samuel Rogers, Rev. John Paul, Rev. Barrett Prettyman, Julia Catherine, Marvin Aubrey and Rev. German Horton Hunt. These children with a mother, who has accomplished in the quiet home circle that which will alone solve the world problem, live on as he would have them live to honor their Divine Lord, and advance the interests of His Kingdom.

Brother Tyler's funeral was conducted by Rev. Frank M. Richardson in the church at Winchester, Virginia, assisted by Rev. John A. Kern and other ministers.

He sleeps in that historic cemetery, Mt. Hebron, at Winchester, Virginia. He sleeps well and every memory of him is precious and holy.

The message of his life may well be expressed in the lines:

"Grow old along with me!
The best is yet to be,
The last of life for which the first was made:
Our times are in His hand
Who saith, 'A whole I planned,
Youth shows but half:
Trust God: See all, nor be afraid!'"

F. J. PRETTYMAN.

REV. WILLIAM EGGLESTON PAGE.

Rev. William Eggleston Woolf came into the Methodist ministry out of the atmosphere and training of a devoted Christian home. His father lived near Rectortown, Fauquier County, Virginia. Here he was born April 29, 1851. No where does the generous earth yield her increase more liberally or respond more quickly to industry and frugality than this region lying along the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Amid the inspiring ministry of this beautiful region, the refined influence of open-hearted hospitality in the home, and the uplifting power of the family altar, he heard the call of God to become a fisher of men.

His education was begun in the home and later he attended the school in the country. Subsequently he entered Randolph-Macon College with the special purpose of fitting himself for the ministry.

At the session of the Conference held at Winchester, Virginia, 1876, he was admitted on trial and appointed to Franklin charge.

His succeeding appointments were as follows:

1877-1878, Petersburg; 1879, Listonburg; 1880, Mineral; 1881-1882, Keyser; 1883, Franklin; 1884-1885, Strasburg; 1886-1887, South Branch; 1888-1890, Berryville; 1891-1893, Montgomery; 1894-1895, Wesley Grove; 1896-1898, Linganore; 1899-1902, Hyattsville; 1903, Bridge-water; 1904, Stephens City; 1905-1908, Burlington; 1908-1911, Frostburg; 1912-1913, Supernumerary; 1914-1917, Herndon; 1918-1919, Blue-mont.

Late Saturday evening, September 13, 1919, on the premises of his boarding house in Round Hill, Va., he was paralyzed. When found he was helpless, but able to tell his friend what ailed him. He remained conscious, at intervals, until the next forenoon, but was hardly so thereafter. The end came Tuesday morning about eleven o'clock—there was a light in his face and a smile on his lips, and he was no more among us.

Some years ago it was agreed between him and Rev. D. H. Kern, of Roanoke, that if he died first, Dr. Kern was to preach his funeral sermon. Accordingly Dr. Kern was present for that purpose and the presiding Elder, Dr. H. P. Hamil, had charge of the services, which were conducted in Round Hill Church. Rev. J. M. Hawley read the Psalm, Rev. H. P. Hamil the Epistle, Rev. Mr. Baker, of the Baptist Church, offered the prayer, and Dr. Kern preached the sermon from II Timothy, iv, 7, 8, and conducted the last rites at the grave. There were suitable selections sung by the choir, and five of his ministerial brethren, together with Brother M. T. Wilkins, a layman of Herndon, bore his body to its last resting place in the cemetery at Middleburg, Virginia.

On April 21, 1882, Brother Woolf was married to Miss Mollie Buckner. To them were born five children, three boys and two girls, all of whom survive him.

William E. Woolf was one of that type of men who have made the Methodist ministry a great power in this country. Preaching was his master passion. He was a faithful pastor and had strong convictions wrought out of his personal experience of the power and efficiency of the Gospel of Christ. His preaching was always with a definite note of certainty. His general information was wide, but his ministry was confined to the great self-attesting truth of the word of God, and was in demonstration of the Spirit and with power. He was of the moral fiber out of which heroes are made. The one desire of his heart was to please God and to die in the active work. Thus he labored until "Heaven opened wide her gates to receive him." There he is, and there we shall find him.

THE REV. ADAM POE BOUDE.

On Saturday evening, November 29th, 1919, at Stanley, Virginia, the long and arduous labors of Adam Poe Boude ended in the glorious triumph of faith over death. His last illness was of brief duration, and his death like his life, had in it large elements of the heroic.

He was born February 20th, 1835, at Millwood, Clarke County, Virginia. His family was of French origin, and was not inconspicuous in the early history of Maryland, in which province they lived. His father served with distinction in the War of 1812. Both his father and mother were possessed of sterling character and a fair measure of mental cultivation, and both were largely dowered with the gift of song, which they passed on as an inheritance to their son.

Always a thoughtful youth of serious cast of mind, time and time again Brother Boude heard God's voice calling him to accept Christ, but he heeded not the call. When he was nineteen years old he attended a campmeeting held at Edinburg. During the sermon he was profoundly convicted of sin. Waiting not for the sermon's close, he at once threw himself in agony of supplication at the rude altar and for four hours grappled with God as surely as did Jacob at the brook Jabbok, and not more surely did God speak to Jacob than He spake peace to the troubled soul of Brother Boude. From that time on through all the vicissitudes through which he passed, he was profoundly conscious of being at peace with God.

About one year after his conversion he was licensed to preach. His first sermon was preached in Mt. Pisgah Church near Big Bend Tunnel, West Virginia, then Virginia. For three years he magnified and adorned the office and work of a local preacher, preaching nearly every Sunday. His ministry extended over more than a half dozen counties in Virginia and West Virginia. From the first he preached with power, and always the people heard him gladly. At the session held at Wesley Chapel, Washington, D. C., March, 1858, Brother Boude entered the Baltimore Conference and was for sixty-one years a faithful member of that body. What a record!

I give a brief summation of his labors: Union Circuit, one year; Huntersville, two years; Jacksonville, now within the bounds of the Virginia Conference, two years; Luray, one year; New Market, one year; Rockingham, two years; Shenandoah Iron Works, eight years, two pastorates; Lexington Circuit, four years; Lewisburg, two years; Presiding Elder Lewisburg District, one year; Talbot Circuit, one year; Sudley Mission, one year; Brunswick, three years; Collierstown, four years; Staunton Mission, four years; Marksville, two years.

Twice during his ministry, owing to throat trouble, Brother Boude was compelled to take a supernumerary relation, namely from 1885 to 1887, and again from 1889 to 1893. In 1901 he was for one year on the superannuate list. In 1908, the seventieth year of his life and the fiftieth year of his ministry, he took a superannuate relation, which relation he held up to the time of his death. However, until a few months before his departure he preached with considerable frequency and always with acceptability.

Probably the greatest work of Brother Boude was done during his superannuation from 1908 to 1919, for it was during that period, and very largely through the inspiration of his faith, the gift of his money and the employment of his time, that a Methodist society was organized at Stanley and a commodious brick church built and paid for. It is detracting from the honor and credit of no man to say, that had it not been for Brother Boude, Stanley Church would never have been built.

Great was the ministry of this man of God, particularly with the young and those in distress, but the man himself was greater than the work he did. Possessed of tremendous physical power, he labored with untiring zeal. Of good education, an extensive reader of the best books in English literature, with a memory wonderful in its range and tenacity and a rich and full experience from large association with men, he was a conversationalist of note in every company of which he was a part, and a man of power. He was as simple as he was great and as humble as he was massive. A musician of no ordinary ability, both vocal and instrumental, he used his high gift for the glory of God and sang the love of Christ into many hearts. A man of unquestioned and unquestionable purity in word and thought and deed.

In the pulpit he was never commonplace. No ministerial mountebank was he, employing methods unworthy of himself and his Lord to attract the attention of men. Sometimes in the pulpit his language was quaint, yet always proper. Never was he obscure, but always forceful, and at times he rose to transcendent heights.

Brother Boude was twice married. His first wife was a Miss Plunkett, of Lexington, Va., a woman of admirable character and sweet disposition. By many years she preceded him to the other world. The result of that union was one child, Clinton, a boy of high character and charming manners, inheriting largely his father's gift of song, who died when he was about twenty years old, deeply mourned by all who knew him. In 1907 Brother Boude was united in marriage to Miss Ida Pendergast, of Stanley, Va., a woman of highest Christian character, who for years has been the organist of our church at Stanley. This union was richly blessed of God. Very happy was the home life of Brother Boude, and his closing years on earth were gladdened by the love and untiring ministry of this good woman.

The last illness of Brother Boude was of less than two weeks duration and was thought by very few of his friends to be serious. He contracted a cold, bringing on an attack of asthma, to which he had been subject for years. Each day he seemed to improve. Suddenly on Saturday evening, just as the sun was going down, his heart failed and his spirit went home to God.

On Monday morning, December 1st, in Stanley Methodist Church, in the presence of a large congregation, a simple memorial service was held, conducted by L. L. Lloyd, assisted by R. L. Fultz, Presiding Elder, H. Monroe Strickler, A. VanDevander and J. E. Hooks.

Awaiting the resurrection of the just, his body was laid to rest in Graves Chapel Cemetery.

Well done, thou servant of God, well done.

L. L. LLOYD.

BEVERLY WAUGH BOND.

As the evening shadows began to fall on January 22, 1920, Beverly Waugh Bond, D. D., fell asleep in Christ.

It was in the midst of pastoral activities and with his widely separated family all gathered about him that our venerable brother's life and ministry came to their close. His heart had been set in filling out not less than a half century of ministerial service, but when the Master called to a larger life and higher service, he was not unwilling or unready. The earthly house had begun to show signs of decay; but the tenant's eye of faith was undimmed, the pulse of affection strong, the spirit buoyant. As the end drew near he felt the moving of the outgoing tide and said "I am tired, I want to go home."

What manner of man he was the Conference in whose membership he had labored so long and in such various relations, knows quite well. "A good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished in the words of the faith," he kept both the letter and the spirit of his ordination vows. So he proved true to the teaching of his church, loyal to its policy, devoted to its ideals. As a pastor he was conscientious, sympathetic, diligent in visiting from house to house. Already in this Conference year he had made three visits to every home in his charge. As a preacher he believed and therefore spoke. No note of uncertainty or effort at display enfeebled his utterance. Well versed in theology, a lover of the Kingdom of God and of the individual soul, intent upon spiritual results, he preached the good word of God with penetration and force.

What shall we say of such a man as to the course of his life from its beginning? Beverly Waugh Bond, a son of Thomas T. and Mary Bond, was born September 3, 1843, at White House, the family homestead, in Harford County, Maryland, and was named for a revered Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It is related, as an incident of his childhood, that being taken by his mother to Bishop Waugh, at a campmeeting in the neighborhood, and introduced as his namesake, he received from the good Bishop a father's blessing—"May the Lord bless him and make him a good man."

Even from those early days he was known as a studious boy. His schooling does not seem to have been of long continuance, though his education in a truer sense was lifelong; for the early formed studious habit was kept up unto the end. After his marriage, while a pastor in Baltimore and its vicinity, he attended lectures at the newly opened Johns Hopkins University, and so was numbered among its first students.

In early manhood he entered upon the study of law in the office of Judge Richard Parker, of Winchester, Va., and was admitted to the bar. At that time he was living a Christian life, having been converted at seventeen years of age, and scarcely had he begun the practice of the law, when he became the subject of a strong conviction of duty and drawing of the heart toward the Christian ministry. At the fourth Quarterly Conference of Emmanuel Church, Baltimore, for the year 1870-71, under the pastoral charge of the Rev. I. W. Canter, he was licensed to preach and recommended to the Baltimore Annual Conference for admission on trial into the traveling connection. At the following session of the Conference, in the year 1871, he was received as a probationer into that body. Two of the eight members of his class, William E. Miller and Hamilton W. Kinzer, still remain among us.

During the forty-nine years of his membership in the Conference, Brother Bond was appointed to the following fields of labor:

Rockville Circuit, as junior preacher, 1871-72; Emory, 1873-75; Trappe, 1876; North Baltimore, 1877; Blacksburg, 1878-80; Arlington, 1881-82; Rockville, 1883-86; Hamilton, 1887-88; Leesburg, 1889-91; Principal of Front Royal Academy, 1892-96; Presiding Elder Winchester District, 1897-1900; Presiding Elder, East Baltimore District, 1901-04; Presiding Elder, Baltimore District, 1905-08; Falls Church, 1909; Presiding Elder, Rockingham District, 1910-13; Leesburg, 1914; Superannuated, 1915; Presiding Elder, Alexandria District, 1916-18; Caernarvon, 1919, and his last appointment.

To the duties of his office this minister of the Lord Jesus Christ brought an acute intellect and a forceful, persistent will. A thinker of the logical rather than the speculative or philosophic type, he was ready at all times to give a reason for the beliefs that were in him. In controversy his opponents found him a skilled dialectician, always maintaining his positions with a tenacity for which he was well known. Equally marked was the trait of practicalness and of devotion to official duty. In evidence of such traits as these, mental and moral, were the most conspicuous tasks that were assigned him in the economy of the Church; for he was called to serve as a member of the General Board of Church Extension, a trustee of Randolph-Macon College, principal of Randolph-Macon Academy at Front Royal, and for nineteen years a presiding elder.

He was also a ready writer, and from near the beginning unto the end of his ministry made diligent use of the pen. The practical trend of his religious thinking was shown by the authorship of tracts on such subjects as Family Religion and the Religion of Money and of an essay on Foreign Missions which, because of its informative and convincing presentation of its theme, was widely published by the Church. "The Positive Evidences of Christianity" and "Love Universal," the one a product of his earlier and the other of his later ministry, were his most notable contributions to theology. He was one of the founders and the first editor of the Baltimore Southern Methodist and through all the following years a valued contributor to its columns.

Perhaps it is not generally known by his acquaintances that Beverly Bond served as a soldier in Stuart's Cavalry of the Confederate Army. But that he had much of the typical soldier's spirit of firmness, courage, and determination perhaps all who knew him would be likely to agree. Writes a friend converted under his ministry, "He was no reed to be shaken by the wind, but having given his heart to his Lord and his service to the Church, he followed his chosen way through the changing years."

Loyal to the church, he was no less loyal to his friends. Owing to a naturally retiring disposition, he made friends slowly, but when made he bound them to him with hooks of steel. And he was at his best in the home. "He never disappointed me" sums up the estimate of his worth in the eyes of his noble and devoted wife. As a father he was loving but not indulgent, firm but not unreasonable. To the very last the success of his children was a matter of deepest interest and sincerest appreciation.

That dearly loved family bereft by his passing, are the widow, who was Miss Elizabeth Lumsden, of Georgetown, D. C.; two daughters, Mrs. Frederick H. Baugh and Miss Helen Bond, of Baltimore, and three sons, Prof. Beverly W. Bond, Jr., of Perdue University; Major Francis M. Bond, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and William L. Bond, of New York City.

His funeral service, held in Caernarvon Church, was conducted by Rev. E. L. Woolf, Presiding Elder of the Baltimore District, assisted by Revs. H. P. Hamil, E. V. Regester and J. W. Smith. All the pastors of our churches in the city and some from other charges were present. The burial was in the beautiful Druid Ridge Cemetery. But our veteran comrade and beloved brother is not there. He is risen, he is in that life which is life indeed.

The book "Love Universal" closes with a picture of the heavenly life and a strain of sacred song which might not unfitly close the story of the author's own life:

"Yon robes of theirs are not like those below;
No angel's half so bright;
Whence came that beauty, whence that living glow,
And whence that radiant white?
Washed in the blood of the atoning Lamb,
Fair as the light those robes of theirs became;
And now, all tears wiped off from every eye,
They wander where the freshest pastures lie
Through all the nightless day of that unfading sky."
